- There will be three writing assignments (escrituras). They must be a minimum of 85 words long. Each escritura will have a first version and a final version. The first versions will be written in class on the dates indicated in this document. When writing in-class escrituras, you will NOT be allowed to use any electronic devices, but you can use your textbook, notes, and a traditional (paper) dictionary. You may NOT totally or partially copy or adapt sentences from your textbook or elsewhere. All versions of your escrituras must be produced by you. What you write or submit must be produced by you, not written, corrected, or edited by someone else or some external source like generative AI, Course Hero, or Chegg. Doing so will be considered plagiarism and you will receive a zero on the assignment

(first and final versions) and it will be reported to the College of Liberal Arts. The final version is a rewrite of the first version, following the instructor's comments. They are due at the beginning of class on the days specified in this document. They must be typed with Arial 12 font, double-spaced, 1" margins and printed out. If the final version is not properly formatted and typed, there will be a 0.5-point deduction in the escritura's grade. See the policies for more information on escrituras. Each version of the escrituras will be returned to you corrected and graded one week after you turn it in. If you experience delays in receiving corrected escrituras, please contact the administrative supervisor, J. Tom Masullo, Jr., at jtm119@psu.edu.

- There will be four closed-book exams in this course. Exams 1, 2, and 3 will include five sections: listening comprehension, grammar, vocabulary, reading comprehension, and a 75-word essay. They will take place at the Pollock Testing Center (<https://www.testing.psu.edu>) on the dates specified below. You will receive an email from the Testing Center at least one week prior to the start of the exam. The day you're taking the test, you must bring your Penn State ID and your own traditional wired earphones with a 3.5 mm jack. The Testing Center will provide you with a piece of bar-coded paper to use during the exam. You must scan and return the entire sheet of paper before leaving the Testing Center.
